

New England Senior Golfers' Association

The mission of the NESGA is to encourage friendly competition among senior amateur golfers at least 50 years of age. Our purpose is to enjoy the game of golf, network and meet others, and have fun.

Our History

---

Founded in 1922, the NESGA is one of the longest standing senior golf associations in the country and boasts a long and storied history.

At its inception, the NESGA was fortunate to have a strong leader, Julius Maxwell, who served as the first President and remained its President from 1922 to 1938. He was able to successfully lead the association through the Great Depression. Another of the distinguished gentlemen who were instrumental in the growth of the NESGA was George Wright, a member of the Woodland Golf Club who was part of the early discussions.

Esteemed [past] members include Francis Ouimet, George Wright, Frederick Gillette, Alexander Treadway, Leon Bishop, and Ted Bishop.

Paying it Forward

In 1998 the NESGA established a Charitable Gift Fund to give back to golf. Through member contributions, monies have been distributed annually to the Francis Ouimet Scholarship Fund, The Widdy Neale Scholarship Fund (Ct. Golf Association), The John Burke Scholarship Fund (Rhode Island Golf Association), The Richard McDonough Scholarship (New Hampshire Golf Association), the Maine Golf Association scholarship fund and the Vermont Golf Association scholarship fund. Donations have also been made to the First Tee of Massachusetts and the Button Hole Golf Course in Rhode Island to help promote junior golf and help grow the game.
